

A Youngster Promoting Human Rights through Poetry

Every character in a society has his role and he performs it accordingly. Writer and intellectuals are also key assets of society as they contribute in the development of community with highlighting issues and encouraging all segments of society to play their role positively and achieve desired results and access and entertain human rights. Mr. Babar Jageerani is also one of the famous and well known writer and intellectual of district Jacobabad.

He is a young individual of 27 years, resident of Jacobabad for last 02 years; he actually belongs to district Qambar Shahdadkot. He is also a poet and drama writer and is affiliated with KTN and Sindh TV Network. He has written solo plays, drama serials for Sindhi media. He is also a member of Sindhi Adbi Sangat.

Keeping in view the importance of role of writer and intellectuals, Civil Society Support Program (CSSP) along with Voice of New Generation (VNG) has invited Mr. Babar Jageerani in different activities of Freedom of Information, Legal Rights and Minority Rights carried out under DAI EDACE Project “Empowering Youth for Improving Social Harmony and Protection of Civic Rights” in district Jacobabad of Sindh, Pakistan. Mr. Babar Jageerani has actively participated in the events and his thoughts were cleared regarding Freedom of Information, legal rights and minority rights. On the basis of his conceptual understanding he realized the need to raise awareness among masses through his intellectual creation-poetry. Babar Jageerani has compiled his poetry on Freedom of Information with title Asan Sabhne Khe Haq Ahe “We all have right” and for Minority Rights with title Rawardari “Harmony”. Mr. Jageerani has shared his poetry in community gatherings, cultural events and also on social media and it is appreciated by all the stakeholders.

Mr. Jageerani appreciated the interventions of DAI under EDACE Project being implemented by CSSP and VNG in district Jacobabad. According to him, with the participation in these events, his concepts were clear and he learned new things regarding rights. And he now considers it as his professional responsibility to compile ideas in the shape of poetry and share with people to access and entertain rights. “With my poetry, community will not only be aware but it will also encourage them to take measure to access and enjoy their rights”, Mr. Jageerani said. According to him community, particularly youth are inspired from poetry and they are raising awareness in their respective communities regarding respective rights.
